

Call for Artwork Original Coloring-Book Pages

Laguna Beach Arts - Nothing Matters More

The Laguna Beach Arts Commission is seeking artists of all ages to design coloring book pages. The City will compile and distribute the designs as a digital collection for the entire community enjoy. The collection of designs will be available online to print and use at home.

Theme

Theme is open. Laguna Beach-specific content (e.g. references to public art sculptures, local scenery and wildlife) is encouraged.

Things to consider

- Designs should be black and white line drawings.
- Content should be appropriate for the entire community.
- Keep it original. Avoid copyrighted and trademarked materials.

Entries

Designs must be submitted via email to mmcgregor@lagunabeachcity.net

Please include your name, contact information and title of your design.

Submissions should be made as high resolution (150-300 dpi) image files (.jpeg, .png, .pdf) and sized to fit standard letter format (8.5" x 11").

All designs will be reviewed by the Arts Commission for approval.

Submissions will be accepted on a rolling basis depending on community engagement.

Distribution

All appropriate works will be added to a live PDF document that will be available on the Cultural Arts page of the City's website: <http://www.lagunabeachcity.net/culturalarts>

By participating in this program, the artist grants permission to the City of Laguna Beach to alter, reproduce and distribute any submitted content or imagery. Artists will be credited by name on their designs and the City's website.
