

HALLIE JONES

Nonprofit Executive/Commissioner

As a third-generation Laguna local, and the mom of two fourth-generation kids, I have a deep connection with our extraordinary hometown and its citizens. We've done amazing things together, and all that we need to keep moving forward is more community.

I've served as Executive Director of Laguna Canyon Foundation, and am now the Executive Vice President of Crystal Cove Conservancy and an OC Parks Commissioner. I am running for City Council to add my voice to critical decisions that will shape the town our kids will inherit.

If elected, I pledge to collaborate with my colleagues and community to:

Make sure our fire and police departments - our first responders - have the resources they need to protect us.

Remain effective stewards of our environment by expanding our climate action plan, educating visitors to leave no trace, and fining those who do not.

Require that all development, large and small, honor the things we love about Laguna.

I am proud to have the endorsement of four members of our current City Council: Bob Whalen, Sue Kempf, Alex Rounaghi, and Mark Orgill. With your help, I hope to join them in service to the town we love.
