Guidelines for Use

All requests for use of space are subject to review by the Cultural Arts Manager. Upon approval, applicant will be contacted with additional instructions to schedule performance dates. Approval does not imply any payment will be provided to the applicant. Performer(s) may not verbally solicit tips but may have a tip jar and small sign. Performer(s) must abide with any and all City or County orders relating to the use of masks and social distancing. Permission for use of space may be revoked at any time and for any reason by the Cultural Arts Department. Performers are prohibited from using the space to promote or advertise in any way for other individuals, organizations, or events. Performances must be appropriate to a public setting and abide to a maximum noise level of 75 dB reading taken from adjacent deck spaces. Performer(s) will indemnify and hold the City of Laguna Beach, its employees and independent contractors harmless from and against any damages, losses, claims or legal liabilities.
